

Introducing UCSF's Undocumented Student Coordinator

Student Financial Services Office || Office of Diversity & Outreach

Jasmin Siguenza (she/her)

Jasmin is a UCSC alumna, and during her time in undergrad she worked as an intern supporting first generation, undocumented students and assisted with college and financial aid applications.

After graduating, Jasmin worked at San Francisco State University as one of the AB540 Financial Aid Counselors and was part of the Dream Advisory Board on campus.

She is now the new Undocumented Student Coordinator and Financial Aid Counselor here at UCSF! Jasmin is excited to be part of the UCSF community and plans to listen, learn, and grow as she transitions into her new role!
