

SHIFTING the UNDOCUMENTED NARRATIVE from
SURVIVING to THRIVING

MONDAY, DECEMBER 2, 2019
SACRAMENTO STATE | BALLROOM, UNIVERSITY UNION

Through the sharing of knowledge, expertise, and emerging practices, this conference enables educators and professionals to become agents of change in their respective institutions and advance the educational success of undocumented and mixed-status students.

WORKSHOP TOPICS INCLUDE:

Inclusive spaces and supports in K12, community college, and 4-year university settings

Student perspectives on thriving and well-being

Intersectionality and undocumented identities

Mental health practices for educators and allies

New advocacy efforts and campaigns

Community resources and programs

CONFERENCE SPEAKERS

ARMANDO IBAÑEZ
Activist, writer, filmmaker, and creator of the YouTube web series Undocumented Tales

JOSHUA DAVIS
Writer, film producer, and author of the book
*Spare Parts: Four Undocumented
Teenagers, One Ugly Robot, and the Battle for the American Dream*

For questions about accessibility or to request reasonable accommodations, please contact saseep-sa10@csus.edu or call 916-278-7241.

For some accommodations, a 2-week notice may be necessary.

To register visit www.csus.edu/saseep/drc

